

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Healthcare Decisions Day is April 16, 2022 and is designed to raise public awareness of the need to plan ahead for decisions related to end-of-life care and medical decision-making whenever patients are unable to speak for themselves and to encourage the specific use of advance directives to communicate these important health care decisions; and

WHEREAS, more than a quarter of all adults have given little or no thought to their end-of-life wishes; and

WHEREAS, eighty per cent of people say that if seriously ill, they would want to talk to their doctor about end-of-life care, yet less than ten per cent report having had an end-of-life conversation with their doctor; and

WHEREAS, one of the principal goals of Ocala's Healthcare Decisions Day is to encourage hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, continuing care retirement communities, and hospices to participate in a statewide effort to provide clear and consistent information to the public about advance directives and increase the number of Ocala residents with advance directives; and

WHEREAS, Hospice of Marion County, along with many of Ocala's prominent health care, business, faith-based groups, and senior services organizations have demonstrated commendable leadership in furthering patient and caregiver-focused advance care planning, and are committed to educating the public about the importance of discussing health care choices and completing advance directives; and

WHEREAS, as a result of April 16, 2022 being recognized as the City of Ocala's Healthcare Decisions Day throughout our city, more individuals and families will have conversations about end-of-life concerns, including their health care decisions; more citizens will execute advance directives to make their wishes known; and fewer families and health care providers will be left to make difficult decisions, in the absence of guidance from the patient.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kent Guinn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Ocala, Florida, do hereby proclaim that April 16, 2022 be known as

"City of Ocala Healthcare Decisions Day"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Ocala, Florida, to be affixed this 16th day of March 2022.

Kent Guinn, Mayor
City of Ocala
