

EXPLORER BINGO

Calling all wetland explorers! Visit the Ocala Wetland Recharge Park and learn more about the park and its wildlife residents. Complete each square and submit the finished bingo card to receive a pack of stickers. All answers can be found on the signs around the park. Good luck!

| | | | |
|---|---|--|---|
| Follow Ocala Wetland Recharge Park on Instagram and Facebook  | Name a bird you saw at the park: | Visit the maze List one way you can reduce non-point source pollution: | Attend a Wildlife Wednesday What animal did the ranger discuss? |
| Attend a Wind Down at the Wetland Write down something new you learned: | How deep are the wetlands' emergent zones? | Post a photo at the park and tag Ocala Wetland Recharge Park | How many frogs are featured on the "Ambitious Amphibians" sign?  |
| What can benthic macroinvertebrates be used to determine? | Meet Murphy What kind of squirrel is he? | Name two reptiles that can be spotted at the park:  | What's the name of your favorite walking trail? Hint: Use the trail map for help. |
| Oct. 24 - 31 is Bat Week Name a species of bats you might see in the park:  | What are dead standing trees called? | Where does most of Florida's drinking water come from? | Name a plant found in the emergent (recharge) zone: |

Bonus: Why is the word recharge in the name Ocala Wetland Recharge Park?

Take a picture of your completed bingo card and use the QR code to submit your photo to receive a free pack of stickers!

Submissions will be received through Sunday, Dec. 31, 2023.

